VOL. XXIV, NO. 175 GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA, SATURDAY, AUGUST 31, 1907 TEN CENTS A WEEK

A WARM CAMPAIGN

Kentucky Democrats Preparing a Hot Roast For Opponents.

FIRE FIRST GUN SATURDAY

Campaign in the Blue Grass State Promises To Be One of the Liveliest for Many Years.—Lines Strongly Drawn.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 30.—The Kentucky democrats will open the state campaign in this city Saturday, the principal speakers being Governor J. C. W. Beckham, nominee for United States senator, and Judge S. W. Hager, democratic nominee for governor. These gentlemen will mount the platform fairly bristling with pointed questions, directed toward the republicans, and the speeches promise to be about as caustic as any delivered heretofore in this state. A. E. Willson, the republican nominee, has been merciless in his arraignment of the democrats, and he will, no doubt, be handled without gloves.

While the democratic speakers will do ample justice to the issues of today, as presented in the present campaign, they will take up the condition of the commonwealth as found when the republicans were ejected from power several years ago, and the roast they will hand the opposition on this score will fairly sizzle, it is said.

The opening rally next Saturday promises to be quite as big an event as the huge Taft meeting held here last week, and there is no doubt but the democrats, while they have made a late start, will enter the race with a full head of steam and with fair prospects of running down the opposition.

HIS SKULL FRACTURED.

New York Artist Found In a Dying Condition.

New York, Aug. 30—George Heinkeshloss, once an artist of merit, and whose pictures are said to adorn many drawing rooms, was picked up from the gutter of a street leading from the Bowery Tuesday night with a fractured skull that is likely to cause his death.

Heinkeschloss, now an old man, had in later years become known as the "Bowery Artist." Reverses and dissipation had driven him to the Bowery and he had been earning a bare living by making crayon drawings and selling them whenever he could.

$100,000 Fire at Rochester.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Fire that started early Thursday in the basement of the Rochester Marshmallow company's factory in Mortimer street, threatened the distruction of the Cox building and adjoining structures in the wholesale dry goods district. The flames shot up the elevator shaft and practically gutted the three top floors of the rear "L" of the Cox building before the firemen got the flames under control. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Quarrel Ends In Tragedy.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 30.—Tom Summerall, a boilermaker, was shot and killed Wednesday by W. H. Hunter, another boilermaker, as a result of a quarrel Tuesday night. They had been together all day, the presumption being that their fight of the night before had been settled. However, shortly after 3 o'clock they were drinking together, when Hunter pulled his pistol and shot his companion five times, producing instant death. Hunter is in jail.

Dog Guarded Woman's Body.

Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 30.—The body of a woman, guarded by a faithful cur dog, was found in the woods just north of the city Wednesday. There was evidence of a desperate struggle and the woman's forehead was crushed. The woman's face was eaten away by insects, and there is no way of identifying her. There is no woman reported missing in this city, and the police are without a clew.

"MURDER WILL OUT."

Scared by the Officers' Story, Man Confesses to Crime.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—The old saying that "murder will out," came true in an unusual way, when Policeman Frank Walsh awakened a man who was asleep in a doorway of the Illinois hospital, Wasington boulevard and Halstead street.

The man, long a fugitive from justice, opened his eyes, saw the policeman's star, and leaped to his feet with a shriek:

"You want me for murder? You are a policeman!" he cried, as he stood, dazed before Walsh.

A moment afterward he collected his wits and ran, but the policeman, drawing his revolver, forced the man to stop and led him to the police station.

At the station the prisoner at first denied being a murderer, but later broke down and confessed that he is Charles F. Burbage, wanted in Greenville, S. C., with a man named W. P. T. Rawley, for the murder of Gus Tanner, a negro, two years ago.

He said he was arrested for the murder, which occurred during a saloon brawl, but escaped. Rawley, he said, escaped arrest at the time. Burbage added that he had been a fugitive for two years.

He is held at the Desplains street station, and the authorities have been notified of the arrest.

In Burbage's possession letters from the governor of South Carolina were found, which purported to be replies from the governor to queries the fugitive had mailed him from Washington, D. C., asking leniency if he should return and give himself up. The replies of the governor said that nothing but justice could be done, and apparently the fugitive decided not to return.

FOUR PERSONS KILLED.

Auto and Trolley Go Together at Top Speed.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Dr. George Waldron, a physician of Rochester, Mrs Cabeine Farnsworth, of Rochester and Mrs. William Scanlon and Mrs. Janie Hobbs, both of Hopewell county, were instantly killed on Wednesday afternoon in a collision between their automobile and a Rochester and Eastern trolley car, near Canandaigua.

The auto was wrecked and the four occupants were frightfully mangled.

The auto was going at top speed when it collided with the trolley car, which was also running rapidly.

FISH AND HARAHAN

Railroad Magnates Have Encounter at Directors' Meeting.

HOT WORDS WERE PASSED

Former President of the Illinois Central and the Present Head of the System, Disagree About Adjournment of Meeting.

New York, Aug. 30.—Stuyvesant Fish, former president and at present a member of the board of directors of the Illinois Central railroad, declined to comment in any way on the personal encounter between himself and James T. Harahan, the present head of the system, at a meeting of the board of directors in this city.

The trouble between Mr. Fish and his successor at the head of the big railroad system arose when Mr. Fish attempted to get before the board a resolution which, in effect, demanded a complete investigation of the administration of the company since the elevation of Mr. Harahan to the presidency.

The reading of the resolution was interrupted by motions calling for an immediate adjournment of the meeting, and despite the protests of Mr. Fish that he had a right to be heard to the end, the motion was declared carried.

President Harahan arose with the other directors and prepared to leave the room, but Mr. Fish protested that the action was illegal.

"You can't adjourn in the middle of business," he said. "It is contrary to all parliamentary proceedure. It is an unheard of breach of courtesy to interpose a motion to adjourn in the middle of a director's remarks. I insist that the meeting is not adjourned, and I shall proceed with my resolution."

"The meeting stands adjourned," retorted President Harahan across the table.

"But it is not adjourned!" Fish replied hotly. "You are tools of Harriman and puppets"—

"You're a liar!" said Harahan, springing to his feet.

An instant later the big ex-president had reached across the table, grasped his successor by the arm and shoved him back into his chair. Then the other members of the board rushed in, separating the two men, and rushed them out and away by separate routes.

FLED FROM THEIR HOMES.

Village In Pennsylvania In Danger from Landslide.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 29.—With their houses creaking, windows breaking and chimneys sinking deep into the earth, several hundred foreigners have fled from their homes in Port Vue, a southside suburb, fearing death in a landslide which threatens to bury Scott streets' twenty-five dwellings.

One hundred yards below the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad company recently started to make a cut for additional tracks. The earth between the cut and the hillside on which the houses stand, is underlaid with soft shale and soapstone.

This whole mass is slowly slipping toward the cut.

During the twenty-four hours the street for one hundred yards, with its houses, dropped 300 feet below its original level, bursting gas and water mains and leaving half the village without light or fire protection.

Three hundred men are at work vainly endeavoring to check the landslide, while crowds of hysterical women and children watch the proceedings of the men at work.

$100,000 Damage by Storm.

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 30—A severe windstorm struck the Iowa state fair grounds here early Thursday, causing damage estimated at $100,000. Knabensnue airship and captive balA live wire was blown against the loon, setting fire to them and totally destroying both. The big tent of the International Harvester company was blown down and the exhibit ruined by heavy rain and fire.

HANGED HISELF WITH A CHAIN.

James Wright Committed Suicide After a Quarrel with His Wife.

Commerce, Ga., Aug. 30.—Information has just been received here of the tragic end of the life of James K. Wright, which occurred near his home in a remote section in Banks county. The details, as reported by J. A. Martin, who live in that community, and who was foreman of the coroner's jury, are as follows:

Mr. Wright, who was 50 years of age, was living with his wife. They had no children. They quarreled over a trivial matter. Wright had warned his wife, that unless she desisted, he would take his life.

After the quarrel Wright told his wife that he intended to end his life. Before he left home, he told her to gather the crop and pay his debts. He then put a halter chain in his pocket, and left home. Mrs. Wright did not construe his threats seriously, as he had made them often before. He did not show up that night.

The next day the neighbors gathered in, and a search was instituted. Two hours later, when the dead body was found in the woods, about one-fourth of a mile from his home. He had crawled up a stooping pine sapling, tied the chain to the tree, and jumped off, breaking his neck.

The body was so badly decomposed that it could only be handled with a sheet. A large box was made, and by the use of a sheet the body was lowered into the box and the remains were interred nearby. The verdict of the coroner's jury was to the effect that the deceased came to his death at his own hands.

APPEAL BY BUSINESS MEN.

President Will Be Asked to Terminate Telegraphers' Strike.

New York, Aug. 30.—An appeal is to be made to President Roosevelt by the leaders of the union to take some action looking to a termination of the present telegraphers' strike. It is the plan, according to an announcement made, to first have the appeal signed by representative business men, and then forward it with the signatures to the president.

There was little change in the general situation Wednesday. At the offices of the Western Union and Postal they said that everything was going along in a satisfactory manner.

The general superintendent of the Long Island railroad received a committee of telegraphers Wednesday.

The men, who are paid from $50 to $60, ask an advance ranging from 10 to 15 per cent, according to the services performed.

Brewers War on Local Option.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Aug. 30.—United action by leading brewers of the United States against the spread of the local option idea begun in a secret meeting in this city Wednesday, news of which developed Thursday. It is proposed to adopt a definite plan to stop the spread of local option, especially in the south. This was the prime object of the meeting.

Hermit Leaves Big Fortune.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 30.—The two sons of Cyrus Grigsm, known for years as the hermit of Oregon hill, who died several days ago, will come into possession of a fortune of nearly $100,000 left by the old man. Both of the boys are hard working mechanics. It had been generally believed that they were the only support of their aged father.

Lion Killed Woman.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 30.—Mrs. Anna H. Hucker, who was attacked at Luna Park, an amusement resort, by a large lion that had escaped from one of the side shows, succumbed of her wounds inflicted by the animal on Wednesday. Mrs. Hucker's lung was penetrated by a tooth of the lion and several of her ribs were broken.

Foreman Shot by Railroad Agent.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 30.—A special from Rushville states that A. T. Hooker, section foreman of the North Alabama railroad at Darington, was shot Wednesday night by T. Whitefield, the Troy station agent here. Whitefield claims he acted in self-defense.

PARKER'S ASPIRATION

New Yorker Has Eyes on Presidential Nomination Again.

SO IT HAS BEEN DECLARED

Former Governor Campbell, of Ohio, Who Has Been East, Says He Got the Information from an Indisputable Source.

Columbus, O., Aug. 30.—"Something to my astonishment I learned while in New York last week that Judge Alton B. Parker was considering being a candidate for the democratic nomination for president again," said former Governor James E. Campbell. "At first I believed that there was nothing serious in the news, but later I was assured that it was intensely so, and that Judge Parker is possessed of the notion that he will be once more elected at the head of the party in the election."

Mr. Campbell, who is a member of the state codification committee, has been east upon his annual vacation trip. He made no comment upon the situation which his statement seemed as existing save to say that he got the information from a source that was indisputable as to veracity.

Receives Decoration by Order of President of France.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 30.—Mrs. Chadwick, wife of Rear Admiral W. Chadwick, U. S. N., by order of the president of France, has been decorated an officer in the Legion of Honor. Mrs. Chadwick received several months ago at the hands of Hon. Lucien C. Bruce, a delegate of the French government, the violet ribbon and the cross which is studded with garnets was pinned to it [illegible] by M. Des Portes del Fosse, charge d'affaires of the French embassy.

The decoration is in recognition of Mrs. Chadwick's devotion to the French cause and the active part she took in the formation here of a branch of the Societie d'Alliance Francaise.

Professor B. L. Henin received a similar cross in appreciation of his devotion to French literature.

ALABAMA ASYLUM CASE.

Climax To Investigation of Legislative Committee.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 30.—A special to the Advertiser from Tuscaloosa, Ala., says:

The climax to the legislative investigation of Alabama's insane asylum was reached Wednesday when Rodney Curry of that institution testified to the investigating committee that young Hines, of Lauderdale county, an inmate of the asylum who died inside its walls some years ago, met his death in a struggle with the attendant. He testified that the hospital authorities were responsible for the death of Hines.

The coroner's jury that sat on the case returned a verdict of homicide.

The father of Hines, who is now sheriff of Lauderdale county, says he will prosecute every one and secure indictments and send them to jail.

The position pays for the first year $600, for the second year $700, and for the third year $900, continuing at that salary for the present.

Just how many are to come and the exact date of their arrival, Mr. Betjman was not readyy to say, bue he announced that there would be enough to prove to the state that the emigrationists are in earnest about bringing in new citizens. The steamer will land the emigrants at Savannah, and from this port they will be distributed through Georgia.

"JUST FROM GEORGIA"

F. L. S. in Atlanta Constitution.

A Billville editor has this weather note:

"We have been having beautiful weather, and the days are so still and peaceful that we can hear the steps of the baliff coming to levy on us a mile off!"

"A man can't whistle when he's unhappy," says a Georgia exchange, "but it goes without saying that whistling makes many people think they're as happy as jaybirds in springtime."

"Mighty Well."

In spite of summer sunshine
An' many a rainy spell,
We allus feel like sayin'
"We're doin' mighty well!"
The great, green world around us—
There's just this news to tell:
"The seed will come to harvest—
We're doin' mighty well!"

"After all," says The Whitsett Courier, "the world's rolling right. Were it not, some of us would be rolling decidedly wrong."

The Dream of Life.

Life is a dream,
But I'll tell you, my honey,
Still in the dream
You have got to find money!
The great, green world around us—
There's just this news to tell:
"The seed will come to harvest—
We're doin' mighty well!"

A Georgia darky who had no lawyer was told by the judge that he "would get justice." Whereupon he exclaimed: "Good Lawd! Dat means ten years!"

A Georgia county boasted of a moonshiner who was only fifteen years old. This was too young, so the Government stepped in and gave him two years more.

How He Pulled Through.

"While sleeping on the railroad track," says The Billville Banner, "one of his legs was cut off below the knee that had the rheumatism in it, but he received enough damages out of the road to buy a cork leg and a first-class piano.

His Thunder Song.

During a recent thunder-storm an old darky was going along, singing of the lightning:

"Here comes the devil,
Flashin' of his eyes,
Mad kaze de righteous
Is gwine ter de skies!"

Word from Bre'r Williams.

"De reason some folks don't want ter go ter heaven is kaze it looks so high dey 'fraid dey'll git dizzy an' tumble 'fo' dey gits dar."

RULE DAY MONDAY.

Largest Number of Cases on Record to Be Brought Up.

Monday being the first Monday in the month will be the regular rule day in Judge Mason's court, and from present indications it will be the heaviest rule day known in this city for many years. There are a great many matters pending, the majority of which will be taken up, and Judge Mason anticipates a busy day.

One prominent attorney in the city stated that he had more than thirty cases to be presented to the court, which alone will require a great deal of the court's time and attention. There are many other matters, and in all the genial Judge will be busy until late in the evening.

Forty Drowned; Hundreds Missing.

Tokio, Aug. 29.—The havoc wrought by the torrential rains in the central provinces during the last few days is alarming. In the Gumma prefecture alone 18,000 houses have been submerged, 49 lives are known to have been lost and 270 persons are missing.

No Operation

Mrs. Malinda Akers, of Basham, Va,, writes: "I had what doctors call 'prolapse,' and couldn't stand straight. I had pain in my back and shoulders, and was very irregular and profuse. Can now do my housework and am in splendid health."

Not a drop of Alcohol

Doctors prescribe very little, if any, alcohol these days. They prefer strong tonics and alteratives. This is all in keeping with modern medical science. It explains why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is now made entirely free from alcohol. Ask your doctor.

Tyner as a Composer.

We have received from Geo. S. Tyner, Tampa, a copy of his latest ragtime, "Make a Noise Like Money," which has already made quite a hit wherever it has been introduced, Tampa especially.

Mr. Tyner is an old Gainesville boy, and his friends will be glad to learn that he is making quite a success as a composer. All his productions are catchy and up-to-date, and he has made a success of every song he has written, among them being, "I Don't Want to Be No Culled Soldier," "Stop That Rush of Language From Your Face," and "What's the Use of Walking When You Can Ride?"

Citra Train Was Late

Owing to the fact that the engine "died," the Citra train for High Springs, due to leave here at 11:40 a. m. daily, did not arrive until ten minutes of 3 o'clock Friday. This delay created considerable inconvenience on the part of those who intended going up the road for a short trip, but the train was detained at High Springs, and it was a late hour Friday night when the train returned on its trip to Citra.

ADVENT CONFERENCE.

Closed Friday Night, After Successful Session of Three Days.

After a successful and very beneficial session of three days, the annual conference of the Advent Christian Church of Florida and South Georgia, which was held with the church in this city, closed Friday evening, the closing session being delivered by Elder H. V. Skipper of Jasper.

The conference has been well attended, considering the fact that the church is new in this State. The meetings were all well attended, the little church on East Main street N. having been filled at every service.

On Thursday evening Elder B. A. L. Bixler of Lake City was ordained, the ordaining officers being Elders H. V. Skipper, J. T. Butler and G. I. Wiggins, with Elder O. T. Maddox presiding. Elder Bixler came from Illinois, but has been assigned to the Lake City church.

Many thanks are due Elder James Lee of the local church for the attention and courtesies extended the visitors. Elder Lee is a very popular man among the members of his congregation and others who have the pleasure of knowing him.

MR. MIXSON'S EXPERIENCE.

Killed a Big Wild Cat While Hunting in Kincaid's Hammock.

While hunting with two or three companions in Kincaid's hammock Friday morning, Guy Mixson came face to face with a hard "proposition" in the nature of an enormous wild cat.

His catship at once showed fight, but Mr. Mixson, with remarkable coolness, levelled his gun and fired, and the cat lay dead at his feet.

The cat was on exhibition at Harrold's market Friday.

Jolly Gainesville Crowd.

A jolly crowd of Gainesville people, about twenty in number, who are sojourning at Daytona Beach, made a delightful trip Tuesday of the present week to the light-house on Mosquito Inlet, about twenty miles distant.

The party spent the day at Mosquito Inlet, taking their lunch with them, and those who went report a delightful time.

DR. STROUSE ENDORSED.

The Asheville (N. C.) Citizen of August 29th says:

A long distance message from Hendersonville to The Citizen last night stated that Dr. Len Broughton, a prominent preacher of Atlanta who was scheduled to deliver a lecture there yesterday and last night at the Anti-Strouse Chautauqua which is being held in the opera house, refused to speak after the manager had refused to allow him to explain his position in regard to the fight of the rival companies.

Dr. Broughton, it seems, made a statement to the manager of the Anti-Strouse aggregation that he would go on the platform and explain, before his lecture, that his presence on this platform was not to be construed as an endorsement of the stories or the opposition to Dr. Strouse. He told them that he would say that he had known Mr. Strouse for years, that he had prayed with him, that he had slept with him, that he had joked with him, and that he had known him and his family intimately for years, and that he believed him to be a pure man. The manager immediately refused him the privilege of making an explanation before his lecture, and Dr. Broughton immediately called his contract off with the manager, left the opera house, walked down to the Strouse Chautauqua in the auditorium building, where he went on the platform, explained his position and eulogized Dr. Strouse highly. The audience applauded him and rose and requested that he speak for them again tonight. There were present at the Strouse Chautauqua about six or seven hundred people, one of the largest crowds that has ever attended a Chautauqua in Hendersonville.

Dr. Broughton, it seems, knew nothing about the state of affairs at Hendersonville, and expressed himself as being very sorry to find such conditions existing.

The trial of the case against Dr. Strouse has been postponed until September 15th, at which time the latter's friends confidently predict that he will put his enemies to flight.

QUICK ACTION.

Secretary Taft, after visiting Oyster Bay, has come to the conclusion that "any action taken by Mr. Roosevelt or his officials is not the result of an hour's deliberation. Depend on that." We hate not! We have conceived that most conclusions arrived at by Mr. Roosevelt have been hot shot, off-hand, hit or miss. We did, until Mr. Taft enlightened us, think "his officials" were more deliberate. But since the information has reached us that former Attorney-General Moody, now Justice of the Supreme Court, evidently without thinking, precipitated Harriman and the Alton railroad immunity for paying rebates to the Standard Oil Trust, why we are forced to believe that Mr. Taft is right in that respect also. Evidently not only the President is liable to go off half cocked, but his officials also.

Secrecy is the very heart of love. To possess none is to allign ourselves with the common herd. When two hearts possess a secret in common, that much they love. The deeper the secret the more intense the love. To betray that secret is to at once strangle love and transform it into hate.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

SERMONETTES

BY J. MARVIN NICHOLS

The widespread unrest in the conjugal relations of the country has at least one very sane explanation. However happy the marriage, when it deliberately fails to complete itself in love's crowning annunciation, then forever thereafter it can have no sublimer reach than the intensest friendship. Say, do you understand?

Napoleon is said to have carried the lives of Alexander the Great, Hannibal and Ghenghis Khan with him in all his wonderful military engagements. On the battlefield he used them for his pillow. And he became even greater than his models. No life with a low ideal can even attain the full measure of power and beauty.

On a sun-dial which stands on the pier at Brighton words are inscribed: "'Tis always morning somewhere in the world." Why grow weary of life when the clouds swing low? The morning sun will drive the mists away. Breezes, richly freighted with the breath of flowers, will come to us again. We shall forget the chill and damp of these low levels. Gird yourself for the fight to the distant hills that lie beyond the valley.

The important question is not whether opportunity knocks once, as Senator Ingalls said, or whether it knocks several times in the course of a life-time, as many able critics of the poem assert. It is, however, of the greatest importance whether the young business man is prepared to grasp the opportunity when it does come. In order to "reach every state mortals desire and conquer every foe save death," youth must be prepared to receive opportunity every single time it knocks.

SCHWAB OPTIMISTIC.

Iron and Steel Situation In America Is Most Encouraging.

New York, Aug. 30.—Charles M. Schwab is optimistic over the steel and iron situation. He sees no reason for discouragement. He said that his optimism was based on the observation that during the thirty years in which he has been interested in the steel and iron business there has been a constant increase in that business almost year by year and therefore there will be no stoppage now. He continued:

"The extension of our railroads is obviously necessary and the increase in our steel producing capacity follows as a matter of course.

"The increase in demand will most assuredly go on, and those who saw 1,000,000 tons of steel used in 1880 and 25,000,000 in 1907, will live to see the time, not so many years hence, when we shall need 50,000,000 of steel. All records in the steel and iron trade will be eclipsed in the not too distant future. We shall have recessions, but the ultimate result is never in doubt."

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. ## RELICS OF THE DEAD.

Horrible Custom of a South American Indian Tribe.

The Ucayali Indians, a numerous south American tribe, with decided cannibalistic tastes, who inhabit both banks of one of the uppermost and longest of the affluents of the Amazon, have a system by which they preserve the features of their dead, so that friends can always identify those that have gone to the "happy hunting ground" as surely as if gazing at a photograph.

To accomplish this they cut the head from the body, but retain the long hair. The ghastly, bleeding trophies of a day's battle or a night's massacre of their enemies are suspended by the long, straight black hair to the limb of a tree. Directly under this they dig a hole, which they fill with water, in their primitive way causing it to boil by placing hot stones in it, or, if near a camp or village, an earthen pot of boiling water is used.

The ascending hot vapor and steam which envelop the suspended head outlined by the fire and shadows, like ghosts in the darkness of a tropical night, in the deep solitude and under the black shadows of the palm forests, accompanied by the weird antics of the ugly human brutes and the shriek of wild birds of the night or the howl of tigers, make a scene that cannot be fully described to the imagination.

This steaming process has the effect of loosening the scalp from the skull or in some way of softening it that all the bones are removed. With the vacant sack of skin drawn from the head intact, they next fill it with hot pebbles and sand. These are replaced by others when they are cool. The process they use has the effect of drying and shrinking the skin, but in some way, not clearly known, it preserves the original features of the victim. They are thus distorted and ghastly looking reminders of the departed. —London Spare Moments.

Never cry as do children who are suffering from hunger. Such is the cause of all babies who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once. Give it a trial. ## BOTH WERE TRICKY.

A Bit of Business Between a Merchant and a Lumberman.

There used to be an old retired merchant in Detroit who delighted in recalling his experiences when an active man running a general store in one of the northern cities of the lower peninsula.

"I used to reap a harvest when the men were coming out of the woods," he relates. "They were not up in styles, and about any old thing would suit them provided the color was right and the fit even passable. But there were tricksters among them, and I had to have my wits about me in order to keep even with them.

"'How much is that hat?' asked a strapping six footer who arrived from camp one day with a pocketful of money.

"'Two fifty,' I replied.

"Then he informed me that he always had the crowns of his hats punched full of holes in order to keep his head cool and his hair from coming out. I soon had this attended to, and then he asked what the hat was worth. 'Two fifty,' I responded in surprise, but he laughed at me for asking such a price for damaged goods. He had me and got his hat for $1, while the jolly crowd with him had a laugh at my expense. He wanted to look at some 'fiddles,' and after pricing one at $10 concluded to take it.

"'Where's the bow?' he asked as I was doing up the package.

"'You only bought the fiddle,' I laughed. The others saw the point and laughed too. The giant tried to bluff me, but I kept good humored and got even on the hat by charging him $1.50 for the bow. I not only got even, but the others were so pleased with my 'Yankee trick' that they spent plenty of money with me."—Detroit Free Press.

Moisten the Buttonhole.

Every man knows the difficulty and agony of a refractory collar stud. With a breakfast to eat, a train to catch and an appointment to keep, few things are more maddening than the collar which simply will not ally itself to the stud. But few things are so easy to remedy. All that is necessary is to dip the thumb and forefinger in water and slightly moisten the obstinate buttonhole. Then the stud slips in without a murmur.

When the yeas and nays are ordered, the names of senators shall be called alphabetically, and each senator shall without delay declare his assent or dissent to the question, unless excused by the Senate, and no senator shall be permitted to vote after the decision shall have been announced by the presiding officer, but may, for sufficient reasons, with unanimous consent, change or withdraw his vote. No motion to suspend this rule shall be in order, nor shall the presiding officer entertain any request to suspend it by unanimous request (section 41). 2. When a senator declines to vote on call of his name he shall be required to assign his reasons therefor, and, having assigned them, the presiding officer shall submit the question to the senate: "Shall the senator, for the reasons assigned by him, be excused from voting?" which shall be decided without debate, and these proceedings shall be held after the roll call and before the result is announced, and any further proceedings in reference thereto shall be after such announcement (sections 17 and 16).

A Fiery Speech.

William O'Brien in his "Recollections" gives this picture of Timothy Healy's first appearance in parliament: "A quarter of an hour after he took his seat as member for Wexford he started up to make his maiden speech—tiny of frame, sardonic of visage, his hands in his breeches pockets, as coolly insolent as a Parisian gamin, as entirely detestable as a small Diogenes, peering over the rims of his pincenez as from his tub, through bilious eyes over his contemptible audience—and horrified the house of commons with the following exordium: 'Mr. Speaker, if the noble Marquis (Hartington) thinks he is going to bully us with his high and mighty Cavendish ways, all I can tell him is he will find himself knocked into a cocked hat in a jiffy, and we will have to put him to the necessity of wiping the blood of all the Cavendishes from his noble nose a good many times before he disposes of us.'"
